

JIFF24 short film fund

Local creatives are invited to apply for the $10,000 funding pool for the completion of a short film that incorporates a Jewish theme, character or story arc.

We are seeking treatments and scripts for films under 10 minutes that are universally engaging, entertaining, and able to resonate with audiences from all backgrounds. The entries are open to all filmmakers who are Australian residents.

Please fill out the below form to submit your project.
